SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

14. Defendant shall complete a mental health evaluation and follow any treatment recommendations of the evaluating professional which do not require forced or psychotropic medication and/or inpatient confinement absent further order of the Court. Defendant shall allow reciprocal release of information between the supervising officer and treatment provider. Defendant shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to defendant's ability to pay.
15. Defendant shall submit defendant's person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a U.S. probation officer, at a sensible time and manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. Defendant shall warn persons with whom defendant shares a residence that the premises may be subject to search.
16. Defendant shall complete a sex offender evaluation, which may include psychological and polygraph testing. Defendant shall pay according to defendant's ability and allow the reciprocal release of information between the treatment provider and supervising officer.
17. Defendant shall actively participate and successfully complete an approved state-certified sex offender treatment program. Defendant shall follow all lifestyle restrictions and treatment requirements of the program. Defendant shall participate in special testing in the form of polygraphs, in order to measure compliance with the treatment program requirements. Defendant shall allow reciprocal release of information between the supervising officer and the treatment provider. Defendant shall pay for treatment and testing according to defendant's ability.
18. Defendant shall be prohibited from possessing or manufacturing any material, including videos, magazines, photographs, computer-generated depictions, or any other forms that depict sexually explicit conduct involving children or adults, as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2). Neither shall defendant enter nor frequent any establishment involved in the sex industry, including but not limited to adult bookstores, massage parlors, and strip clubs. Defendant shall not utilize any sex-related adult telephone numbers. The supervising officer is authorized to monitor compliance in this area by obtaining relative records including but not limited to telephone, Internet, and credit cards.
19. Defendant shall live at an approved residence, and shall not change defendant's living situation without advance approval of the supervising officer.
20. Defendant shall have no contact with the victim in person, by letter or other communication devices, audio or visual devices, or through a third party, unless authorized by the supervising officer. Defendant shall not enter the premises or loiter within 1000 feet of the victim's residence or place of employment.
21. Defendant shall register as a sex offender, according to the laws of the state in which defendant resides, is employed, or is attending school. Defendant shall provide verification of compliance with this requirement to the supervising officer.
22. Defendant shall have no contact with any child under the age of 18, without the presence of an adult and approved in advance by the supervising officer. Defendant shall immediately report any unauthorized contact with minor-aged children to the supervising officer.
23. Defendant shall not reside or loiter within 1000 feet of places where children congregate, which includes playgrounds, primary and secondary schools, city parks, daycare centers, and arcades.
24. Defendant shall not be employed in any occupation, business, or profession or participate in any volunteer activity where defendant has access to children under the age of 18, unless authorized by the supervising officer.
25. Defendant shall not possess any type of camera or video recording device.
26. Defendant shall undergo a substance abuse evaluation and, if indicated by a licensed/certified treatment provider, enter into and successfully complete an approved substance abuse treatment program, which could include inpatient treatment and aftercare. Defendant shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to defendant's ability to pay. Defendant shall allow full reciprocal disclosure between the supervising officer and treatment provider.
27. Defendant shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to urinalysis testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.
